

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

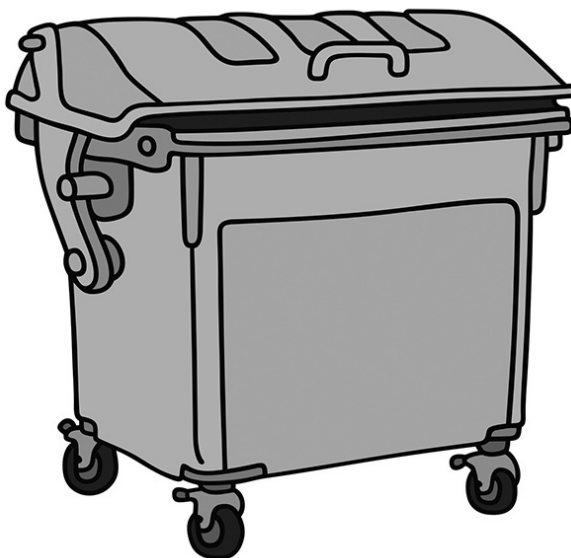

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: My building has strict recycling rules!

Learning Outcome

Exchange advice and suggestions in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you recycle your garbage? Why or why not?
- How strict are recycling rules in your city?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about nature and the animal world.
- I can say and use words with silent k.
- I can use proper intonation in long questions.

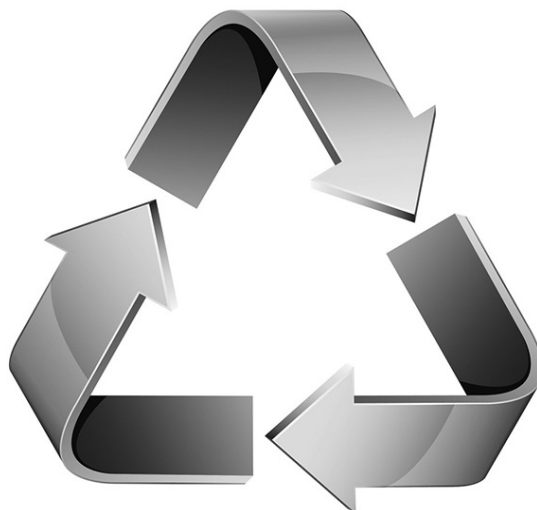

Let's Explore!

Peter and Sally talk about being green - it's not easy being green for Peter, but his neighbor is a knockout*.

* "Green" refers not to the color, but to the attitude of being eco-friendly.

 A "knockout" is a very attractive woman.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: How's your new place in Boston, Peter? Have you settled in yet or are you just getting to know the place?
- Peter: I've settled in, for the most part. My building is very 'green' - they have very strict recycling rules. I'm not very knowledgeable when it comes to sorting garbage.
- Sally: Since I've traveled in Europe, I've got quite the knack for knowing what goes where. Recycling is so important for the future of our environment.
- Peter: I know, I know. Sometimes I knowingly throw something that should go in the blue bin down the garbage chute. I just don't have the time!
- Sally: Peter! That's terrible! I think I have a recycling chart in my knapsack. I picked it up at city hall last week. Here, you have it.
- Peter: Ha, thanks. Next time I just might knock on my neighbor's door and ask ... she's a knockout.
- Sally: Peter, what's more important to you: hitting on your neighbor or saving the narwhal?
- Peter: Narwhal?
- Sally: I saw an article yesterday about a narwhal that washed up on the shore with garbage wrapped around its head. It was horrible.
- Peter: Oh, Sally. You're such a tree hugger ... or should I say narwhal hugger?

Let's Practice!

Remembering silent letters.

Instructions: Organize the mystery words. Read the words aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Nockkotu
2. Gnoikn
3. Ckkon
4. Enoledkgablew
5. Ckakn
6. Pacsknk

Let's Practice!

Are you an environmentalist?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. building / very / is / Green / . / My

2. strict / . / have / recycling / very / rules / They

3. narwhal / saw / an / . / yesterday / the / I / article / about

4. A / such / . / tree / hugger / You're

Extension Activity

Discuss the issue of recycling.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- How important is recycling to you and your country? Discuss this issue with your partner.
- Compare your opinions and write a brief summary of them.
- Read your summary to your teacher.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about the issue of recycling.

☐
☐

I ask my partner long questions about being green.

☐
☐

I write about recycling.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to settle in (verb): to become comfortable in a new place
e.g. Have you settled in yet?
- green (adjective): environmentally friendly
e.g. My building is very 'green'.
- recycling (noun): converting garbage into useful material
e.g. My building has strict recycling rules.
- knack (noun): an acquired or natural skill at performing a task e.g. I've got quite the knack for knowing what goes where.
- narwhal (noun): a small Arctic whale, the male has a long forward-pointing spiralled tusk e.g. I saw an article yesterday about a narwhal.
- tree hugger (expression): a person who is very environmentally aware e.g. You're such a tree hugger.
- chute (noun): a slide for moving things to a lower level
e.g. Sometimes I put recyclable materials down the garbage chute.

Learning Points

Intonation in Long Questions

Intonation is important in long questions. You use the rise and fall of your voice to show the listener when you are or are not finished.

In long questions, the intonation falls and then rises to show the question is not finished. The intonation rises or falls at the end, depending on whether it is an information or yes/no question.

Say these sentences. Vary the intonation on the bolded words. Be sure to notice if the question is an information or yes/no question.

Have you settled in yet or are you just getting to know the place?

What's more important to you: hitting on your neighbor or saving the narwhal?

Learning Points

Silent Letters in English

You don't say every letter in a word in English pronunciation.

Here there are examples of silent letters in words. Practice by saying the example sentences.

Letter	Words	Example
Silent B	climb - comb	Do you want to climb a mountain with me?
Silent C	muscle	I have strong muscles in my legs.
Silent D	handkerchief - Wednesday	I went to the doctor on Wednesday.
Silent E	hope - write	I like to write sentences.
Silent G	sign - foreign	Robert is a foreign student.
Silent H	what - where	Where are you going?
Silent GH	daughter - light	I miss my daughter.
Silent K	knee - knowledge	My knee is hurting.

Here there are some more examples of the silent 'k' in words:

knowledgeable

knack

know

knew

knockout

